You own the certificate along with the accumulated cash values and you can take it with you even if you leave the company. Additionally, if you leave the company and take your certificate with you, you can change your dividend option and choose to have your dividend payments reduce your premiums.

Tax advantages

Whole life insurance policies offer a combination of valuable tax advantages, including:

- Generally income-tax-free death benefit
- Tax-deferred cash-value growth

Accelerated Death Benefit Provisions

As the certificate owner, you can receive an advance, or acceleration, of a portion of the death benefit under the certificate, if the insured is diagnosed with a terminal illness or if the insured has a chronic illness.

- Terminal Illness: The Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness is payable when the insured meets the definition of Terminally Ill, generally diagnosed with an illness that will result in death within 12 months (24 months in some states.)
- Chronic Illness: The Accelerated Death Benefit for Chronic Care is payable when the insured meets the definition of Chronically Ill, generally having a permanent loss of two activities of daily living, or requiring substantial supervision due to permanent severe cognitive impairment.

These benefits are not long term care insurance and may be used for any purpose. In many cases, these benefits allow access to more funds than would be available through a certificate loan or certificate cash surrender value. There is a fee taken from the Chronic Care Benefit. Consult with your tax advisor regarding a request for accelerated benefits.

Please be sure to review all of the features of your coverage.

¹ Access to cash values through borrowing or partial surrenders will reduce the policy's cash value and death benefit, increase the chance the policy will lapse, and may result in a tax liability if the policy terminates before the death of the insured.

² Dividends are not guaranteed. The certificate is eligible to receive dividends beginning on the second anniversary.
